The answer to (b) has to be qualified. With regard to the Pudukkottah Darbar we find on reading that circular that they have not made it a condition precedent that Typewriting is a necessary qualification for clerks, but only, as far as possible, it is better to have this qualification also.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know whether the Government are aware of the reasons that prompted the Madras Government to make Typewriting qualification a condition for recruitment as clerks?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—The reasons, so far as they are apparent from the circular, Government are aware of.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—My question is whether the Government are aware of the reason behind the order of the Madras Government?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.— Government are not aware.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are the Government aware that continuous type-writing is sure to impair the health of the Typists?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—That will depend upon the health of the Typist.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are the Government aware that the question of health being prejudicially affected by continuous typing was not the reason behind the order of the Madras Government?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—Nothing appears in the circular with regard to this aspect of the matter.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—What is the objection of the Government to make Typewriting a necessary qualification for clerkship?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—We have not used the word objection. It is one thing to say that it is an additional qualification and it is another thing to say that it should be a necessary qualification.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

whether chalans Nos. 247, 292, 283, 26 and 366 of 1110 and 5, 27 of 1111 of the Cranganur Treasury show the payments made by judgment-debtor in S. C. 329 of 1110 of the Cranganur Munsiff's Court?

Mr. Thomas Manjuran.—Yes.

Mr. K. M. Kunhi Moideen.— These questions have been split up. I had sent up continuous questions. I cannot ask supplementary questions now.

Mr. President.—Probably the question dealt with different topics. Under the Rules and the Standing Orders the question must deal with only one issue. The question was probably out of order. But the office helped the member in splitting up the questions.

Do you mean to say that you put different questions?

Mr. K. M. Kunhi Moideen.—Yes, Sir, and I specially desired that the questions should be answered together.

Mr. President.—That is not possible. The answers are printed as they are received from the Heads of Departments. If this is done it will be infringing the rights of other members to put questions.

Mr. K. M. Kunhi Moideen.—But you said the other day that this will be done.

Mr. President.—Only as far as possible. The Hon'ble Member can ask supplementary question when the other questions come up.

Fan—Legislative Council Library.

95. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Government state the number of days during which the fan in the Legislative Council Library was out of order in the month of Kanni 1111?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—No records are maintained to note the number of days during which the fan in the Library was out of order.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.— Has the Hon'ble Member any information about it?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar.—I have the information that for a few days the fan was not working when the repairs to this hall were going on here and I had not received any complaint that it has affected anybody.
